

positive decision of condemnation for public use.

Article 30. — The deposit or payment prescribed by the preceding article shall be established by duplicate in the name of the Court of Cassation, and the two originals shall be, on the fourth day at the latest, remitted to the Procureur of the Republic, who shall give an acknowledgment for it.

Article 31. — In case the graves shall not have received receipt within the period above fixed, the journals and receipts to appear, under pain of the penalties prescribed by the law of the 22nd of March 1844, shall be deposited in the name of the Procureur of the Republic.

Article 32. — A condemnation for crime committed by the accused, or by a co-defendant, in the period of the trial of the press, or two condemnations for offences or contraventions committed within the period of two years of the trial of the press, shall be considered as graves if the grands may have been condemned. After a condemnation pronounced for contravention or offences committed in the period of the trial of the press, the Article 32.—The proprietors of journals or periodicals actually existing, as dispensed from the above-mentioned stamp, shall be liable to a fine of two months is required to comply with their caution, and at the expiration of that period, if the caution-money is not completed, and if the publication continues, the proprietors shall be liable to a fine of two months.

Art. 56.—The present law is not applicable to A. and B. and the provisions of the present law, and especially the provisions of the law of the 16th July, 1860, are repealed.

Art. 57.—The Ministers are charged, each in what concerns him, to see that the present law is executed. Given at the Palace of the Tuilleries, the 17th Feb. 1862.

By the President,

X. DE CASABIANCA, Minister of State.

France.

NEW DRESS OF THE FRENCH NATIONAL GUARD.

The frock-coat is to be continued, but the collar is of the same blue as the coat, and closed with hook-and-eye buttons. On each side of the collar are to be placed ornaments in white embroidery. The cuffs are to be like the collar, with a red binding. The buttons are to be white, with an eagle raised on them; and the trousers to bear a red band at the sides. The epaulettes are white, and the shako of blue cloth, with white blue above the chevrons, of the same form and color as now in use. It is to bear in front a white plate, with number of the battalion marked on it, and an eagle, haversack like to be of black leather, the arms and number being in silver.

THE NEW FRENCH COURT DRESS.

The costume to be worn by those honored with a title to the French Empire will be composed of a dress of tulle, with a high collar, and a train of tulle, and with buttons marked with an eagle; trousers with a sword at the side. French hat with a black plume, a sword with gold or silver hilt. Embroidery of gold, or blue or red silk, with olive, oak or palm leaves will be by its variety to establish a series of differences between the various corps and functionaries. The Senators have palm or olive leaves embroidered in gold on the collar, cuffs, pockets, and breast; the coat is to be bordered with a wide band of ornament of waving lines like the waves of the sea, and the lining of the coat is to be of the same color as the buttons is to be with outspread wings over an eagle, emblem, calling to mind the Senate and the people of France.

Ireland.

The London Chronicle correspondent says:—I have seen the dress of the members of the House of Commons, and it is a very handsome one. It is a dark blue coat, with a high collar, and a train of tulle, and with buttons marked with an eagle; trousers with a sword at the side. French hat with a black plume, a sword with gold or silver hilt. Embroidery of gold, or blue or red silk, with olive, oak or palm leaves will be by its variety to establish a series of differences between the various corps and functionaries. The Senators have palm or olive leaves embroidered in gold on the collar, cuffs, pockets, and breast; the coat is to be bordered with a wide band of ornament of waving lines like the waves of the sea, and the lining of the coat is to be of the same color as the buttons is to be with outspread wings over an eagle, emblem, calling to mind the Senate and the people of France.

very different representation of the state of affairs in a large district, comprising portions of Mongolia, Manchuria and Kweichow, and state that the secret organizations have been very active in the past few years. The worst feature in the case is that a formidable band of revolutionaries is active in the payment of fines, and as a result the government has been obliged to make a considerable concession in the amount of the fines. It is stated that the Freebooters have been very active in the payment of fines, and as a result the government has been obliged to make a considerable concession in the amount of the fines. It is stated that the Freebooters have been very active in the payment of fines, and as a result the government has been obliged to make a considerable concession in the amount of the fines.

There is every reason to believe it will be ready for production on the 26th of March. Each day rehearsals take place. It will be one of the largest successes we have upon our stage for some years past.

Foreign Miscellany.

One effect of Kosuth's "starving," says Vienna letters of the 20th inst., is that Hungarians are thermometrically sealed against Englishmen. Two of them, two peaceably disposed travellers, one of whom bore to United States, have just been refused the right to enter that country, and the Hungarian themselves frequently failed to obtain a passport.

Madame de Kotzebue, the widow of the celebrated dramatist, who was associated by the student Sassen with the student Liebig on the 5th ult.

The Count Henry, v. de Franke, and Count Hambro, were about leaving Vienna on the 11th ult. Venice.

The Duchess of Orleans has addressed the fol-

[illegible]

Mr. Green, the veteran aerial voyager, retires from aerial pursuits. He has made 489 solo flights, completing the number of 500 during his flying career.

Mr. Charles Mear, shipbuilder, of Blackwell, has challenged the Americans to run a vessel against the fastest ship they can produce, for a thousand guineas—the winner to be free to go from 30 to 300 tons.

The court-martial, on the 18th ult., tried a soldier named Zimmerman, of the 68th regiment, for being in a garriotte at Chartres, for exciting to revolt against superiors and disobedience to the laws. It was proved that Zimmerman had been elected to the position of member of the committee of the 68th regiment, and that, as it took place in presence of the officers, and that, were to be re-commenced, he would vote very differently from the majority of the regiment. His vote was against the officers in the regiment like him, they would drive away the others and the officers. The court condemned him to three years imprisonment, and to the cost of his defence.

[illegible]

The Otheello says that early in the ensuing spring "fleet of gondola steamers" will be placed on the river to run between London bridge and all the piers to Richmond. They are ten in number, of the new model; sleeker, resembling somewhat the famous Italian boats ply on the canals of Venice. A splendid view is afforded from the wharves of the city, with a panorama of the whole of the estuary of the river, with a picture of the river.